AMATEUR FOOTBALL TITLE MAY BE WON ON LEPPER FIELD

Tigers and West Enders to Stage Title Game to Decide City's Best.

The light heavyweight football title of this city will in all probability be decided at Lepper park this afternoon when the dashing and speedy Tigers line up to give battle to the strong West End eleven. For some time the two teams have been regarded as possible City champions and the game between them is expected to decide a season's dispute.

Williams, the star half back of the Tigers, is the chief source of worry to the West End. "Stop Williams" is the battle cry of the Enders and if they can repulse the off tackle and end runs of the fleet footed star their chances for a win will be much improved. Williams, who is also captain, declared last night that he had a card up his sleeve and will spring it at the vital moment.

The West End team has used the forward pass with marked success this season and it is quite likely that the Tigers will be forced to battle against some mighty good pass formations.

The Tiger manager is out looking for some stiff opposition from the teams of this city and has issued a challenge to any 150 lb. aggregation here. Any answers to the challenge may be made through this paper.

ATHLETE RETURNS AFTER BIG SEASON

Leslie "Benny" Allen, Local High School and Wabash
College Star, is Home.

Leslie "Benny" Allen one of South Bend high school's greatest athletic stars, has returned to his home in this city after a very successful season playing the outfield for the Wichita Falls club in the Texas league. "Benny" finished the year with the Texas league club, after playing with the Mobile aggregation in the Southern association and managing the Meriden team in the Mississippi Delta league, and hit for .745 while caving in the outer gardens. Allen started at football, basketball and baseball during his high school career from 1911-14 and also was a "three-letter" man at Wabash college, being a member of the "Wabash wonder five" of 1916-17.

HEYDLER DOESN'T FAVOR SUGGESTION

Thinks Judge Landis is Wrong in Wanting to Shorten World Series.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—President John Heydler, of the National league, differs with Judge Landis, commissioner of baseball, on the advisability of returning to a seven game world series.

"As a member of the advisory council, I don't care to take issue with the commissioner," Mr. Heydler said. "Yet I cannot help recalling clearly the unsatisfactory nature of a seven game series and that it was chiefly, almost entirely, in response to public sentiment in the matter that we were constrained nearly three years ago to extend the series to nine. It was for the sake of the game itself, that the action was taken, it having become evident that the all-around strength and class of a team sometimes failed to be brought out and to tell its story in a seven game series."

"Instances have arisen in which one remarkable pitcher was able single handed to decide the issue when the series called for the best four out of seven games."

Middies Take Revenge By Beating Princeton

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Oct. 15.—The Annapolis midshipmen avenged last year's defeat by Princeton by taking the measure of the Tigers in a fiercely fought game on Farragut field today. The score was 13 to 0. The middies scored a touchdown and goal in the second period, the touchdown being the result of a blocked kick.

In the fourth period King's right toe counted for the other six points. He kicked two placement goals from the 25 yard line, after the Princeton players had braced and checked the heavy Navy onslaught.

Aggies Worn Down, Then Defeated by Michigan

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Oct. 15.—Michigan wore down the stubborn defense of the Michigan Aggies here this afternoon and won the annual state football classic 30 to 0. The farmers held Yost's machine to a single touchdown and goal in the first half. Michigan was weak in aerial play, all of the 19 or more forward passes attempted by the Yostmen being either intercepted or incomplete.

SWARTHMORE TIES PENN. PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Oct. 15.—A desperate spurt of speed in the final minutes of play saved the University of Pennsylvania from defeat at the hands of Swarthmore on the gridiron today, the game ending in a tie 7 to 7.

Purdue Can Beat This

TEX 'N 'EM

By Tex Kelly

Notre Dame has mastered herself. After suffering defeat at the hands of a team that yesterday proved itself to be the greatest in the conference, Rockne sent his best against Purdue. There is little doubt but that the thralls of defeat no longer weighed heavily upon them, and with their old time zip and dash they punctured the line, bunched up the markers and whitewashed the old time rivals, the Boilermakers.

Just as they looked in defeat, so they appeared in victory. They played their best at all times, stopping only while one of their teammates recovered from a bruise or loss of wind after some daring, hard play. That they were masters of themselves at all times was apparent.

They lost none of the confidence that had sent them through a three year schedule without a defeat. They did not attempt to tower over their adversary. It was a chance to display that they were clear, hard athletes out to build up another string of victories over the greatest college elevens in the country. They proved it. Even the most loyal Notre Dame rooter was fearful of the effect the loss of the Iowa game might have on the fighting forces of Coach Knute K. Rockne. The effect is apparent from the score of yesterday's game. Notre Dame beat Purdue by 33 points. Nine points more than did Capt. Coughlin's great squad last year. Those same nine points were all Chicago University could gather in four periods of the hardest conference game seen in Chicago in years.

Walter Eckersall, Chicago Tribune sports editor, refereed the Purdue conflict. He has always been known as a conference booster. He lauded the efforts of Purdue when they held the best college eleven in the Windy City to a 9-0 score. When the time comes for the All-Western's and the All-American's, let us hope Eckersall will remember the double victory that Notre Dame won over an ancient and tough opponent who was outclassed from the first moment by a real wonder team.

LOUISVILLE WINS EVENING SERIES

Ben Tineup, Indian Twirler, is Better Than Lefty Groves
in Hurling Duel.

BALTIMORE, Md., Oct. 15.—Louisville knotted the count at three with Baltimore in the post season clash between the two clubs by taking this afternoon's contest 3 to 0. It was a pitcher's duel between Ben Tineup, the Indian twirler of the American association champions and Lefty Groves, of the Orioles, in which the Redman had just that margin of superiority which meant the difference between victory and defeat.

The official attendance was 7341 and the receipts $9,297.40.

NORTHWESTERN ELEVEN GETS ANOTHER BEATING

CHICAGO, Oct. 15.—Playing its first game of the "big ten" season, Wisconsin triumphed over Northwestern 27 to 0 today. The day was a home coming at Northwestern and 15,000 spectators sat in a drizzling rain to watch the game.

The defeat was the third straight for Northwestern this season. The Badgers outclassed their opponents in open football and with an easy victory assured, Coach Richards sent substitutes into the game in the fourth period. Elliott Williams and Sundt played a brilliant game for the Badgers.

Elliott scored three of Wisconsin's four touchdowns. Gould rushed through the line for the first touchdown in the opening period. Forward passes played an important part in the Badgers' attack.

What the National Industrial Conference Board has discovered for the clothes-buyer

Here is interesting information which very definitely supports the statements we have made in our newspaper advertisements in recent weeks and in numerous conversations with our customers.

In relation to other commodities on the average family budget, such as food, shelter, light and fuel, the price of clothing shows the greatest decline (38% decrease) during a period of twelve months, from July, 1920, to July, 1921.

This information is reported by the National Industrial Conference Board and is taken from its tenth report just issued, and it confirms very emphatically the reductions we have featured in our fall offerings of
